Hi Sir/Madam,

I hope you are doing well and are safe in this pandemic.

We at Skillenza along with AnitaB.org have come up with an online Hackathon - GHCI 20 Codeathon for Women Students. This opportunity encourages your college students to use their scientific mind to develop projects that will drive social impact. Impress the judges with your skills and be recognised for your talent in the corporate world.

So I would request you to can share the below email with women students.

Please find the email content below which has to be shared. Let me know if you've any queries.

Hi Everyone,

Skillenza invites you to participate in GHCI 20 Virtual Hackathon which is being conducted by AnitaB.org in celebration of the 11th year of the Grace Hopper Celebration India (GHCI), the largest technical conference for Women in Asia.

Register here

WHY PARTICIPATE?

- To avail an opportunity to learn from industry experts
- Build solutions that drive social-impact
- To be recognized in the corporate world for your software development skills
- To contend for an impressive total prize pool of Rs 2,85,000

To participate in the Codeathon, you MUST be:

- a woman engineering student from computing, engineering, and IT backgrounds, enrolled in the degree course.
- graduating on or before Aug 2020 are not eligible.
- from Tier 2 or Tier 3 colleges in India which exclude all the IITs, IIITs, NITs, BITS, and IISc.
- pursuing engineering in a Tier 2 or a Tier 3 city in India. Tier 2 and 3 cities do not include Bangalore, Chennai, Delhi-NCR, Mumbai, Hyderabad, Kolkata, and Pune.

AnitaB.org, a non-profit organization, believes that women are crucial in building the technology that the world needs today.

This hackathon intends to witness projects that aim at resolving various social and economic issues arising during the COVID-19 crises. Candidates are free to choose their problem statements on their own or from here. The technology that will be used to present the solution is at your discretion as well.

What are you waiting for then? Ideate, Invent and Create Now!
REGISTER HERE

Happy Coding!

Regards,
Team Skillenza

Hi Sir/Madam,

Hope you're safe and well!

I know you're probably busy. Wondering if you've checked my last email. I just wanted to know if you've already shared the email to your students so that can register. If not kindly forward the same.

The last date of registration is 31st July 2020.

Looking forward to participation from your students in good numbers.

Let me know if you've any questions.
